TROUBLESOME WEED SPREADING.

IT RUINS ALL VEGETATION.

Way to Kill It Is To Sprinkle Salt
Around It or Burn With Straw.

An obnoxious and troublesome weed is rapidly securing a foothold in Bourbon and adjoining counties that is annoying to farmers. It is thought that it came into existence through the importation of clover and other grass seeds. It is a species of sorrell allied with the dock family.

ABUNDANCE OF SMALL SEED.

It grows about ten inches high with a main stem which produces an abundant supply of seed as small as tobacco or mustard seed and has a long oblong root with a cluster of small roots, above the apex of which is a cluster of outward branches in the form of diminutive grass blades, approaching in color and size the finer blades of timothy. The plant is destructive to all other vegetation which fails of a luxuriant growth wherever the presence of the weed is noted. Stock of all kinds avoid it and refuse to eat it. It does not seem to be affected by drought and is usually found in clover and timothy meadows, and in fields recently sown to bluegrass.

WEED SPREADING STEADILY.

It has never been noticed in great quantities in bluegrass pastures thickly set to bluegrass, but its steady spread is becoming alarming and farmers are nonplussed as to the best methods of eradicating it. Readers who have had experience with the weed are invited to give their method of extermination. Ed. Fishback, of Pine Grove, Ky., and D. C. Lisle, of Bourbon, prominent farmers and close observers, have had considerable experience with the weed and say the most successful method of combating its spread is to sprinkle salt liberally on the ground where the weed has gained a foothold, and by covering it with straw and burning the straw.

Politicians will heed popular demands.

SUICIDE.

FIRE BULLET INTO HIS BRAIN.

Head of the American Tobacco Company Takes His Own Life.

Charles C. Vogt, head of the American Tobacco Company in Kentucky and one of the most prominent business men in Louisville, committed suicide Wednesday by shooting himself.

Mr. Vogt had been in ill health for a couple of years, ever since his wife died.

He was formerly manager of the John Finzer Tobacco Company. When that company was merged with the American Tobacco Company he became State manager.

Available at Residence of Trustee.

The Court of Appeals affirmed the judgment of the Fayette Circuit Court in the cases of Kate L. Higgins. The question involved in these cases is "is intangible personal property, such as notes, mortgages and bonds, held by a trustee in this State, liable for taxation at the residence of the trustee when the owner is a non-resident."

The court rules that such property is taxable at the residence of the trustee upon the ground that the property enjoys the protection of the law of the place where he resides. Judge Carroll wrote the opinion.

OLIVE BRANCH

Offered by the Government to the Wine Growers of France.

At Paris, France, June 11, in the Chamber of Deputies Finance Minister Caillaux announced the government's determination energetically to suppress the wine frauds, and held out the olive branch to the growers by saying that the government was prepared, as an inducement to abandon grape growing in favor of other crops, to remit the land taxes in such cases for five years.

NEW SALOON LAW

IS HELD CONSTITUTIONAL.

Pendleton Whisky Act in Tennessee Upheld and Three Big Cities Will Go "Dry."

In a test case at Bristol, Tenn., Chancellor Haynes declared the Pendleton whisky law, which gives municipalities the right to abolish saloons, to be constitutional, notwithstanding the omission of the words "State of" from the enacting clause of the bill. This means that Knoxville, Bristol and Jackson will join the column of dry cities.

6,000 Soldiers on Duty.

At Paris, France, June 19, six thousand picked soldiers held the entire vine-growing country. The winemakers are up in arms over the effort of the Government to control their industry.

Dry.

The Court of Appeals on Wednesday decided that Maylick is "dry" with the balance of the Magisterial district.

PARIS JUDGE

Will Try Plan of Punishing Saloon-Keeper Who Sells the Liqueur.

What is believed will materially reduce the number of cases in the Paris police court for drunkenness is a new process evolved by the presiding judge of that court, Judge E. T. Hinton.

The object is to correct the mistake which frequently visits the judicial sanctum. Heretofore fines imposed have been productive of no benefits, the offenders reappearing at short intervals. In the future when such offenders are brought into court his honor will notify every saloon keeper in the city that such a man is an incorrigible and request that no more whisky or intoxicating drinks be sold him. Should this fail to produce desired results, then the druggist will be required to tell where the secured liquor with the result that the party selling will be amenable to the penalties of the law.

WHAT is worth painting is worth painting well. No matter how good the design, if the painting is not well done, it is worthless. Thomas Kennerly.

PREACHER

TO BE CHIEF OF POLICE. Will Hold Place a Month, and Will Clamp on "Lid."

The Rev. E. E. Davidson, pastor of the Christian church at Washington, Ind., has petitioned Mayor Russell and Chief of Police Corning to allow him to act as Chief of Police during July.

"In case I am placed in temporary charge of this department of the city I will pick my own deputies, and I will see to it that the lid is kept on," he says.

"I am willing to give the preacher a chance," says Chief Corning, "for I want a vacation, but, in case he is appointed, he must attend to all the duties of a chief in a small city, arrest drunkards, stop fights and make himself a handy man at all times and circumstances."

A PLEA.

We are unalterably opposed to raising revenue by the licensing of saloons, whether such action be resorted to by city, county, state or national authorities. For 30 years the writer has been a total abstainer from intoxicating liquors. He has counseled against, opposed and fought the whiskey business, yet at no time has he sought to do harm to or cherish unkind feelings toward the misguided men who are in the business. They are among the men for whom Christ died. When we consider that man was made in the image of God and endowed with such powers of body and mind and heart as will enable him to walk with God, to be a blessing to himself and his fellow men, to be an honor to his community, we are grieved to know that any number of men will engage in a business that is the direct cause of more libelous, strife, heartache, unhappy homes and other sorrowful facts than result from any other business or occupation of men.

We have tried to show that there is an honorable life for these, a high mission, a record to be faced at the last day when all men must give account for the deeds done in the body.

Again we appeal to saloonists to walk in a blessed way, to help build up instead of to tear down, to help bring joy instead of sorrow, to help win heaven for themselves and others, instead of tempting, forcing and rushing into hell.

We would persuade rather than abuse; we would lead rather than drive; we would have their willing service rather than a forced service.

NEW KENTUCKY.

The Reporter of this city, commenting on Republican State Convention, says:

"A. E. Wilson, our Standard-Bearer for 1907, in a most forceful argument, so thoroughly pictured out his campaign, until everybody present could see the New Kentucky in all of its grandeur and splendor. His promises were not extravagant and were only such that the most sanguine politicians might hope to accomplish."

LIQUOR DEALERS PREPARING FOR FIGHT.

"Atlantic City, N. J., June 21.—Injection of anti-saloon sentiments into the platforms of both great political parties in the next national campaign was predicted at last night's session of the National Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association in this city.

A call was made for the federation of liquor interests in the United States, not only to meet the present sweep of prohibition agitation, but to prepare to check the movement in the Presidential conventions of 1908, speakers declaring that the growth of the crusades against liquor will force the party leaders to recognize the necessity of placing some "platform" before the people at the coming election.

The organization of a great campaign fund to meet the new conditions was advocated by the protective bureau of the association, and big contributions to this fund from every liquor interest were urged."

The edict has gone forth. America must be free from the curse of the legalized saloon. Kentucky will do herself honor by blotting out the traffic. Her congressional delegation should be unanimous in demanding such interstate commerce law as will protect our state from whiskey men in other states. Gov. Beckham was nominated for United States Senator by temperance men and because of his stand for temperance. The extension of the County Unit Law will be urged by the Democratic and Republican parties in Kentucky this year, and we expect to see Kentucky line up solid for temperance. She has been dishonored and her people damned by the legalized trade.

City, county and State officials are persuaded to stand for the redemption and elevation of our boys and girls. If the devil gets hundreds of men long addicted to excessive use of intoxicants, let us save the young generation. Get on the band wagon.

BRIGHTER.

Because they violated the Sunday closing laws, suffered gambling and conducted a disorderly house, the Linville Brothers had their license revoked and will be unable to continue business at their saloon during 1907 unless they pay the entire cost of a new license, $150. When the hour for inquiry came on they and their attorneys failed to appear. Their attorney told City Attorney they were guilty, hence Mayor Combs, of Lexington, revoked their license. The Mayor said:

"I mean to see that the place is conducted in accordance with the law. If I have another complaint, I will shut down that saloon as fast as a drum."

We congratulate the Mayor. Perhaps the saloon element in Lexington will learn that they must regard the law and their oaths.

The Kentucky Press Association, in session at Estill Springs, by forcing the motion to adjourn to be put to the house and carrying same, refused to take position by resolution on the temperance question; giving this as their reason: The temperance organization is as much a political party as are the Republican or Democratic parties and to resolve in favor of resolutions of either would tend to destroy the very object of the organization. The great majority of the membership present were favorable to the temperance cause now sweeping the country, having engaged in local option and anti-saloon contests and will continue in the warfare against the saloon for the observance of Sunday and for higher morals.

A REJECTION.

Last week we received from an advertising firm in a Southern city a $15 check, advance payment for an advertisement desired by them. As our columns are not open for advertising saloons we could not accept the service. We do not increase our business that way.

A CONGRATULATION.

Whatever of fact, rivalry, discord, crimination and recrimination have existed or in coming campaigns may occur in the dominant political parties in Kentucky, there is at least one question on which there seems to be much of agreement, both as to results accomplished and anticipated.

The last Legislature passed the Cammack County Unit Bill, the most pronounced advance in temperance legislation for years. This bill received the hearty support of some members of both parties. Some opposed it. We are thankful for what each party did and regret that any member of either party saw fit to oppose the measure. Public sentiment has been aroused, consciences have been quickened, indifference has been changed to earnest effort, and today the enforcement and extension of the County Unit law is advocated by the Democratic and Republican standard bearers. As is well known the Democratic candidates for State offices were nominated by a primary election without a formal declaration of principles and intentions through a platform, but their leader, the candidate for Governor, S. W. Hager, in a public letter, says:

"I heartily approve the action of the last Democratic General Assembly in passing the County Unit law, and will favor such development of said law as will fully meet the demands of the people of the Commonwealth." In this he is said to voice the sentiment of other candidates with him on the ticket. They will no doubt, in due time, fully express themselves.

The Republicans in State Convention adopted a platform and selected their candidates. We print that platform on last page. Section 9 of the platform reads: "We favor the enactment and enforcement of a uniform local option law, with the county as the governing unit."

Thus is briefly set forth the declaration of both parties; one through its leader, the other through its platform.

We now ask that the representatives of these parties be credited with sincerity, truthfulness and intent to secure for Kentucky the greatest good that may result from the enactment and enforcement of temperance laws.

Let there be no unkind insinuations, or hasty suspicions, or partisan antagonisms, or selfish exaltations as to what either party has or has not done or may or may not do in the redemption of our fellowmen, for whom Christ died, from the temptations and slavery of the liquor habit.

Let us ALL TOGETHER rejoice at what has been accomplished; let Democrats and Republicans with united heart and hand, pray and labor for the freedom of our State from a curse more dishonoring than any slavery that has blighted American society.

This is a measure that merits the approval of PATRIOTS, of MEN. We congratulate Kentuckians on the privilege and opportunity that confronts us.

Should we say, let's have another railroad in Montgomery county, some one might drop dead. Yet we could have others if we would only work for them. Mt. Sterling is wide awake along some lines and should be along many lines. The organization of a Commercial Club with live, active young men who would use their energies to an awakening aim would accomplish much. Where are the young men that would take the lead?

Pure Drugs!

To get results it is necessary to use pure drugs. Everything is guaranteed.

KENNEDY'S CALL THERE.

It is said on the authority of Gov. Beckham's closest friends that he will appoint only three officials in the Louisville matter, Mayor, County Judge and Police Judge. These were designated by the Court of Appeals. Here he will rest leaving the balance of the appointing job, free from any suggestion from him and to his appointees. It is said the Governor has adopted this course not that he would shirk responsibility, but because he thinks it to be in accord with the high court decision, the literal construction of Judge Lassing's opinion, as approved by a full Court.

Does Mt. Sterling want schools?

We have a man in our midst who can build up a great one. He will need help. Shall we give it? The amount of money distributed by the boy and girl patrons would be emoluments from that source. Let's have the school.

In the Male High School, in Louisville, two prizes of $25 in gold each, were awarded in life science and sophomore classes. The first was awarded to J. S. Lyons, son of Rev. Lyons, formerly of our city. The subject of his essay was: "The Career and Activities of Thos. Jefferson." The second went to Carter Logan, son of our friend Hume Logan at whose home the writer was entertained last September during a missionary convention. In his essay he considered: "Why the Canadian Colonies Did Not Join the Other North American Colonies in Their Revolt Against Great Britain."

Another Saloonkeeper Caught.

In Lexington, Sunday, detectives Johnson and Stewart, dressed in citizens clothes, entered a saloon run by J. W. Carmichael. Several men were in the building, when policemen entered and were summoned as witnesses. The evidence is said to be positive. The keeper was taken on a charge of disorderly house and violating Sunday closing laws.

On Monday in Police Court he was fined $50 and cost. He now goes before Mayor Combs. Good bye. He will be looking for another job.

On Sunday lightning struck the colored Christian Church at Carlisle. Fire in steeple did considerable damage.

Kentucky Press Association.

On Monday afternoon, June 17, the Kentucky Press Association convened at Estill Springs, 160 s. r.ong. The Address of Welcome was by Hon. Hugh Riddell, of Irvine. It was historical in style and well said. The response was by W. B. Haldeman, of Louisville, in his pleasing manner. He paid an eloquent tribute to Judge Robert Riddell, who has for many years been a constant wearer of judicial ermine, and has kept it free from stain. The Association then adjourned until Tuesday morning.

The Springs are kept by L. C. and J. E. Riddell, men of experience, and who know how to keep springs hot perfectly. The usual complaint of a few cranks in a large assembly like this was unheard. The service, the fare, the rooms were perfect, contributing to the joy and comfort of the guests. The buildings are situated at the base of a mountain, a woodland unsurpassed for its natural beauty, while beds of flowers decorate the handsome and well-kept yards. It has been truly said "The hotel and cottages are models of comfort and cleanliness." Estill Springs well deserves her fame, awarded from merit. Here pleasure seekers find that which contributes most to their joys: the weary and worn from a long business confinement find rest; the sick a panacea for their ills; the old and infirm are returned to youth; the student and the delving scholar finds food for a fertile brain.

In the party were J. W. Hedden and wife, Miss Bruce Chiles, of this city, and Miss Cyphie Kern, of Paris, with them.

In comparing the scenery about Estill Springs and that along the Kentucky River valley, it was decided to be favorable to that of the Hudson River. It is a reality surpassing the dreamer of the Alps.

Our party is wishing for many happy returns.

The President's address was of fine merit and was thoroughly enjoyed, and Tim Neeldman's poem was read.

"The Press and the Government" by Geo. A. Newman carried with it both the power and dread of the press.

Round table conducted by Ed. Shinnick, "The Thoughts That Pay in a Country Office," brought some valuable suggestions.

Our best men were present and made many valuable contributions. The reception Monday evening was followed by music and dancing; Tuesday evening, German in the large ball room; Wednesday evening, banquet. Thos. C. Underwood, toastmaster, was really grand, and would have been creditable to our largest and more pretentious society cities.

The Association has taken steps looking to supplying of wood for pulp used in the manufacture of paper. Also an effort may be made to establish a firm that will furnish stock at a more reasonable price than the present figures.

A committee was appointed whose duty it will be to bring matters of vital importance both to the press and the people generally, to the Legislature.

This was a great meeting, right down to business; not a drop of liquor with any of the members. We expect beneficial results from this meeting.

Government Enters Suit Against Monon for Exchanging Mileage for Advertising.

A test to determine whether the railroads have the right to grant interstate newspaper transportation in payment for advertising was begun at Chicago on June 20 by the Government. District Attorney Sims, representing the Interstate Commission, filed suit against the Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville railway, asking that the road be enjoined from carrying out a contract for transportation made with a magazine.

Policeman at Winchester Shot a Man.

On Sunday morning at 1 o'clock John Ballard, policeman, on his regular beat, found many negroes in a fight at a restaurant. As he entered he was assaulted by negroes, who tried to kill him. He shot one of the assailants three times, killing him. A second negro continued to fight and was shot in groin. A third was shot by accident.

Having settled, by compromise, all the claims placed in our hands for collection, against the City of Mt. Sterling for over-charges in the way of costs in the Police Court, our clients are requested to call upon either of the undersigned at once and secure the amount due them.

THE LINE BETWEEN

Stein-Bloch and Hamburger Clothing

And other ready-to-wear clothing is so great that even poorest judges of merchandise can at once see the difference, to say nothing of the discriminating buyer, who long ago learned that all things are classified and that all standard goods are labeled. The labels on the Stein-Bloch and Hamburger Suits stand for a half century's work, worry, system, and knowing how: a half a century's combined efforts of labor and capital, to make and keep them the foremost ready-to-wear clothes in the world. They stand today in a class that is strictly their own, and of their own making, they are different, and if they were not different they would not be here; and again, if Walsh Bros. could not sell different clothes from other stores, they would not be selling clothes. To the man who lives in this great country, who is carrying the high-priced tailor's burden, or shoddy tailor's raiment, we know there is a reason for your sorrow. Perhaps some years ago you bought ready-to-wear clothes from some unscrupulous store who cared not for fit, style, fabric, or you, and you have since camped out. We want you; we want you to return to ready-to-wear clothes, to come to our store and see the great progress your country has made in the tailoring of ready-to-put-on apparel. It is worth your while, and the more discriminating you are the more capable you will be of appreciating the art of our offerings. COME TO-DAY.

The great Stein-Bloch Suits and Outing Suits in the new English sack coats, made with broad, elegant shoulders, new style set pockets, new style cuffs on sleeves, with deep gorge collars and broad lapels, closing with 3 buttons that are set very close together; new 3 and 4-button vests with or without flaps on pockets; and the latest cut trousers that are especially tailored for spring and summer wear. The greys, blues, browns and tans which are so popular this season in fabrics for men's clothes show up beautifully in the English Sack, Stein-Bloch Suits as low as $18 and up to $30.

The celebrated Hopkins Straw Suits and Panamas are now on sale. We show the only line of straws coming direct from the makers and the largest line in the city. The new bleached enameled process used by the Hopkins people gives life and luster to the straw. Their styles are authority and their hats are sold by the best stores everywhere. We have the sole agency for Hopkins Straws and Panamas here.

The Newport Sack, the Sagamore Sack are two of the latest creations from the tailor shops of Hamburg. These garments are swell things for young fellows who want extremes in their clothes. The fabrics are the latest things shown in the New York market, and have just come in by express. Gun Club Checks, Chain Weaves and Shadow Plaids in Ravine Velour Cassimeres. The fabric here used in these garments has no equal for its shape-retaining qualities, the broad shoulders and curved lines of Hamburg's garments rounds out the figure of the youth as to other clothing can.

SUITS FROM $15 to $30. OUTING COATS and TROUSERS, $10 to $20.

The Manhattan Shirt, the Eclipse Shirt and our own Custom Goods offer a collection that comprises every want of man in shirts. The colorings, the combination weaves, the interlining of stripes and bars, the bold plaids cover every inch of shirt thought. We carry all sizes and sleeve lengths. We show the separate collar and attached collar styles with plain or turn-back cuffs, shirts cut open front or button back. Our large collection enables us to fit and suit every customer. This was the decision reached in Chicago Friday after a long discussion by railroad presidents of all the Western and transcontinental roads. Following the meeting, officials of several of the roads admitted that they had been forced to bow to public opinion and anti-railroad legislation.

FLUE CURING IMPROVES TOBACCO LIKE ROASTING IMPROVES GREEN COFFEE

Flue Curing Develops the Stimulating Aroma and Taste Found in Schnapps that Satisfies Tobacco Hunger

There are three ways used by farmers for curing and preparing their tobacco for the market; namely, sun cured, air cured and flue cured. The old and cheap way is called air cured; the later discovery and improved way is called flue cured. In flue-curing the tobacco is taken from the field and suspended over intensely hot flues in houses especially built to retain the heat, and there kept in the proper temperature until this curing process develops in the tobacco the stimulating taste and fragrant aroma found in Schnapps tobacco, just as green coffee is made fragrant and stimulating by the roasting process. Only choice selections of this ripe, juicy flue cured leaf, grown in the famous Piedmont country, where the best tobacco grows, are used in Schnapps and other Reynolds' brands of high grade, flue cured tobaccos.

Hundreds of imitation brands are on sale that look like Schnapps; the outside of the imitation plugs of tobacco is flue cured, but the inside is filled with cheap, flimsy, heavily sweetened air cured tobacco; one chew of Schnapps will satisfy tobacco hunger longer than two chews of such tobacco.

Expert tests prove that this flue cured tobacco, grown in the famous Piedmont region, requires and takes less sweetening than any other kind, and has a wholesome, stimulating, satisfying effect on chewers. If the kind of tobacco you are chewing don't satisfy, more than the mere habit of expectorating, stop fooling yourself and chew Schnapps tobacco.

Schnapps is like the tobacco chewers formerly bought costing from 75c. to $1.00 per pound; Schnapps is sold at 50c. per pound in 5c. cuts, strictly 10 and 15 cent plugs.

Auditor Hager Will Accept Disputed Bank Taxes.

State Auditor Hager has announced that he will accept taxes due for this year from the banks of the State with the understanding that if the contention of the several national banks of Louisville and Lexington, that they are entitled to deduction from assessment according to the number of Government bonds they hold, is sustained, he will refund to them, as provided in Section 162, Kentucky Statutes, the taxes paid by them representing the value of their holdings in such bonds.

Increase in City Assessment.

City Assessor B. F. Wyatt has finished the assessing of city property in Mt. Sterling and fixes the total valuation at $2,063,374, an increase of $201,835 over the assessment of 1906. The white tax payers own $2,000,694 and the negroes $62,680 worth of real and personal property. One thousand and seventeen voters are recorded, 651 whites and 336 negroes, an increase of 168. The assessments of the banks are included.

Two-Cent Rate Voted by Gov. Hughes.

Gov. Hughes, of New York, vetoed the bill instituting a flat passenger rate of two cents a mile on every railroad system in the State more than 150 miles long.

Mountaineers Migrating to Michigan.

Thirty men together with their families from Lee, Powell and Estill counties passed through Lexington last week enroute to Escanaba, Mich., where they are to engage as woodchoppers. Wages are better there in Kentucky.

It is estimated by the local railroad people that about 700 persons from the mountain counties of Kentucky have migrated to the newer States of the North and West since the beginning of this year.

Over 800 Have Applied For Liquor Licenses.

Over 800 saloon keepers in Louisville on Thursday renewed their applications for license to retail liquors for another year, beginning first Monday in August. Applications for renewals must be made on or before June 20. These applications lie over in order to give those who are opposed to saloons time to remonstrate.

Licenses are $150 each and $5 for advertising. Although Gov. Beckham has indicated that he will put the bid on in Louisville, there seems to be no diminution in the number of applicants. There are now 859 retail liquor licenses in effect.

MISUNDERSTOOD SITUATION.

Shortsighted Person (to badly bunkered golfer who has lost his temper)—Hush! my good man, hush! I know that stone breaking is a trying and arduous occupation, but surely it doesn't justify you in using that dreadful language!

RETURN OF THE BUGLE.

Once upon a time the very sound of the word bugle, as applied to matters of dress, was looked upon as the personification of all that was dandy and impossible. Even the mere man who wore novels always represented the most down-trodden of cravats or tooth-rattling lodge-house keepers as wearing black bouquets with single trimming, or shabby silk cravats upon which a few longies still survived to tell the tale of departed greatness.

And now, by a strange turn of fashion's wheel, bugles have actually come back to favor, and we find them in clear crystal, in silver and gold and in various colors, summing themselves in the smiles of the most important courtiers, and preparing even to play a prominent part on the evening frocks of the immediate future and the court gowns of the coming season.

ILLUSTRIOUS SHOEMAKERS.

Germany's now famous captain of football comes of a calling which has given the world some very great names. One authority asserts that the majority of soldiers have exceptional brains—that their attitude when stomping over their work tends to a mental development in the part where the intellectual faculties are seated. Some one has written a book on "Illustrations Shoemakers." In it are Sir Thomas Sturges, 1475, and the Terrible Black, 1544, and the well-known "Farmer's Boy" Carver, the original; Alford M. King, George T. King, the Bishop of the Society of Friends, John King, the Biblical scholar, St. John, the electrician. The list of illustrious shoemakers runs, in fact, on.

ILLUMINATED CALENDERS.

To the modern world a "calendar" is merely a harmless necessity for a record of weeks and days, to be hung in our New Year's day, and needed in setting letters during the year. It has no such important sound as "calendarium" had for the ancient Romans. The original "calendar" of our times was the names of the months, which, as all know, were named after the Roman gods.

WOLFOUNT IT!

THE RETORT BITTER.

"Why, how do you do?" said the harker in his old-time customer. "How!" snapped the latter. "You're a stranger. I haven't seen your face for a long time."

A SWINISH ERROR.

"In my scriptural," said Clyde Finch, the famous playwright, "I have many examples of typographic errors."

"Of all those errors, I like best one when a ten given by a society woman in '97 was called a swill affair."

WHISKY SHIPMENTS

Sent to No One Should Be Stopped, Says the Ky. Court.

The Court of Appeals on Thursday reversed for a new trial the case of the L. & N. railroad vs. the Commonwealth from Laurel county. The railroad was indicted for allowing whisky to be sold on its premises, the whisky having been shipped by express from Cincinnati, and the agent at the destination in Laurel county was also the agent of the railroad. The court says that under the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court the case comes under the Interstate Commerce law, but that other questions must be looked into on the next trial, especially as to the general custom of the express company in receiving pay for whisky ordered by any one. In other words, the court thinks there must be some way to stop the shipment of whisky into local option districts without violating the Interstate Commerce law and without running contrary to the recent Supreme Court decision.

Destructive Cocaine Habit.

There are, it is said, 100,000 cocaine fiends in New York City and in Louisville several hundred. Most of them are young in years. Cocaine fiends are slow suicides. They last after initiation about two and one-half years. They are as much slaves to the drug habit as morphine or opium addicts. Cocaine, unlike morphine and opium, produces a temporary stimulating effect, inducing sleeplessness and banishing fatigue. But in the end the full drug togets hallucinations, insanity, nervous wreck and death. The State of New York is taking steps to prohibit the sale. In the New York American we read: "A bill making the sale of the drug without a doctor's prescription a felony has passed the Assembly and will doubtless pass the Senate."

Every State and city quarantines and makes regulations against deadly disease. But the cocaine habit is a more deadly scourge than any disease. It wrecks not only the bodies, but the minds and character of its hapless victims. From it they should be delivered by law. Louisville Herald.

Colored School.

The Commencement Exercises of the Mt. Sterling Colored High School were held at the Court House Wednesday night. The class of 5 members acquitted themselves in high style. Their orations in point of thought were supreme and the delivery was par excellence. The singing, under the direction of Mrs. N. W. Magowan, was just what the audience expected. All in all the exercises rivaled any of former years. Prof. Estill deserves much praise for the excellent way he has managed our school for the last 16 years.—The Reporter.

On Monday of last week (Court day) Henry Ewing, colored, who lives near the Bath line, came to town, filled up on whiskey, went to sleep and was robbed. When he came to himself he informed Policeman McCormick and accompanied him to a negro dive. McCormick arrested Mima Hunt, Lizzie Jackson and Henry Wheatly after they had claimed innocence and also promised to return money if that would satisfy Ewing. Lizzie Jackson gave up $21, and Mima, who said she was innocent but would be willing to get money, forked over $20. These and Wheatly were brought before Judge Kemper, who held them on bond of $200 for Circuit Court. Wheatly furnished bond.

Twelve Men Will Hang This Week.

MASS SELL TOBACCO FOR FARMERS

Commissioner's Ruling Important to Kentucky Growers.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Capers has announced a ruling which is of importance to tobacco farmers in Kentucky. In part it is as follows:

"It is held that a farmer may sell tobacco of his own growth or that which he receives from his tenants, without restriction as to the quantity or the business of the person to whom the tobacco is sold or delivered. This privilege is one which the farmer can not delegate to another person. Where a grower of tobacco sells his crop before it is severed from the land, the purchaser is not privileged to resell it to consumer without payment of the tax."

"A farmer may place his tobacco in the hands of a qualified dealer to be sold on commission, and such dealer must sell it only to other qualified leaf dealers, or manufacturers or purchasers for export. Any arrangement made by a farmer or a number of farmers with another person to sell and deliver their tobacco while traveling from place to place would be in violation of law. An agent may travel and solicit orders, but he may not deliver the tobacco to purchasers nor sell tobacco on commission."

"All tobacco sold by an agent for the farmer who raised the tobacco must be delivered by the farmer, and not the agent, directly to the purchaser. A farmer must sell his tobacco in the condition in which it was cured on the farm and can not stem, twist, plait, roll, sweeten or otherwise manipulate it for sale to consumers. The farmers of leaf tobacco are not required to pack the leaf, but may sell it in the hand or in such other state as they may desire in its natural condition."

Heavy Storm.

The heaviest wind and rain storm of the season visited this place, Thursday, June 20. Rain fell in torrents for 12 hours. Page and Hiram's branch were fuller than ever before. Crops and fences were all washed away. All the oil and gas lines crossing these streams were washed away. A yoke of oxen were drowned, belonging to Sheriff J. W. Cox, eleven derricks were blown down and broken to pieces in the oil field. Reed Bros. Show was in progress, the tents were blown down, women and children were run over and knocked down in the mud and all were drenched. Fortunately no one was seriously injured.—Campton Courier.

Des Moines Will Do Away With Mayor, and Commission of Five Will Govern.

By an overwhelming majority, the citizens of Des Moines, Iowa, adopted what is known as the "Des Moines plan" of government. The new plan provides for an elimination of the ward system, with its Aldermen, Mayor and other elective officers, and the election by the city as a whole of five Commissioners, all of whom shall give their entire time to city affairs, one as Mayor and the other four as heads of departments. All other officers are made appointive.

Is It Right?

Is it right when a man who has subscribed for and has been taking a paper notifies the P. M. that he no longer wants the paper and refuses to take it out of office? No! He should pay what he owes and quit like a man. A subscription for a paper is a small transaction, but the adjustment of the account involves as much honor and honesty as if the debt were for a house or a farm. 17
